FENNEL HAS NO MORE WARRANTS IN SHIP CASES

Not Contemplating More Arrests, and Will Not Put Matter Before Federal Officials

As far as Liquor License Inspector W. P. Fennell is concerned, there probably will be no further arrests in the case involving the interned German gunboat Oler and three merchant vessels, which are alleged to have been conducting "blind pigs" on board.

"I am not going to take any further action in the case until the return of the German consul and the captain of the Oler from Illio," Inspector Fennell said today. "It would not be fair to them. I am not contemplating any more arrests. Personally, I am not going to present the matter to the federal authorities, for the reason that my jurisdiction ends in the district court."

August Poeschke of the steamer Pommer and Heinrich Muller were arrested last night on warrants issued by the city attorney's office. The cases were to be heard this morning in police court, but were continued until tomorrow morning pending an investigation. It was reported, of the district court's jurisdiction in the matter. According to Inspector Fennell, the law firm of Thompson, Milverton and Cathcart, legal representatives of H. Hackfeld & Company, will appear as counsel for the men.

LANE HAS MESSAGE ON BOND ISSUE TO PRESENT TOMORROW

Mayor Lane will read a message to the board of supervisors tomorrow night recommending a special election on the question of issuing bonds for the construction of a new city hall and roads around the island.

He expects to receive an opinion from A. M. Cristy, first deputy city attorney today, on whether or not $750,000 in bonds can be voted on at one election or issued in one year.

The law says that but one half of one per cent of the assessed valuation, or $480,000 in Honolulu's cases, can be issued in any one year. The mayor believes that with no bonds outstanding a way can be found to issue the $750,000 required for the two projects he favors.

FILIPINO STABBED IN DOWSETT LANE FIGHT

In a fight that took place with several of his countrymen about 9:30 o'clock last night near Dowsett lane, Palama, Pedro Delacruz, a Filipino, was stabbed, receiving one wound in the right arm and another in the right side. Officer George Keila arrested Marion Rullon as having a prominent part in the fray, and brought him to the police station. The condition of Delacruz is said not to be serious.

FINDS PATRIOTS OF HAWAII LOYAL AS ANY ON EARTH

Former Governor Walsh Tells Ad Club of Impressions He Will Take Back to States

Hawaii is populated by Americans as loyal as any to be found anywhere under the Stars and Stripes. This is the news which David I. Walsh, former governor of Massachusetts, will take back to the Atlantic seaboard with him when he returns to his home in New England, he told the members of the Ad Club today at their weekly luncheon.

In a rapid fire burst of oratory punctuated and emphasized by quotations of poetry that won his audience to him, the speaker told of his impressions of Hawaii.

"Regardless of what his politics are, or any other relatively unimportant detail, the principal thing about any man is what kind of a heart he has," said Mr. Walsh. "Have you Christian charity and the fountain of brotherhood in your heart? Then you speak the common language of brotherhood, no matter in what part of the world you live."

See Great Future. "You have a great future here. As a public servant of many years' experience, I know something of what makes a government or its people great and successful. I have been three times elected in my state, once as lieutenant governor and twice as governor. And I want to entreat you with the great possibilities that lie before the people of this community."

"You have climate the equal of Palm Beach, not two months in the year but for the whole 12 months in the year, unsurpassed even by Atlantic City at its best."

"There is no other spot under the American flag or under any other flag that combines the beauties of Palm Beach, Atlantic City and the White Mountains of the United States. Oh, those marvellous mountain peaks of yours!"

Flag Means Much Here. "And I'm glad the American flag floats over this place. In a way I feel touched that these simple, friendly, affectionate people whom God first gave to these islands, should be deprived of governing their own land, but the American flag means much to them as well."

"Today in Europe, millions are suffering in the trenches; and as many women are suffering untold anguish in their breasts. Why are they doing it?" thundered the ex-governor. "They are doing it because they love their flag and their country."

How to Test Officials. "There are two tests to use on any man in public office. Not what is his position on any political issue, but is he a free man, does he do his own thinking, and is he indifferent to the influence of the wealth and power around him? Second, is he conscientious not merely as a bank trustee of funds, although that is high enough, but does he realize that he is the trustee of the lives, the liberties, the blessings of the people in his care?"

"Massachusetts and the Hawaiian Islands are equal under the mother government, rivals only in striving to see which can be most loyal, most patriotic to the glorious Stars and Stripes," he concluded.

With the biggest crowd in many months attending its regular Wednesday noon luncheon, Ad Club members listened to George Andrus sing "The Road to Mandalay," accompanied by Miss Nollis, both of the Kamehameha schools, and encircled in the usual Ad Club "second verse" style.

The roads committee reported that the condition of the roads is no longer blamable to the government, but under the new frontage tax laws the people are themselves responsible.

After outlining for the benefit of the former governor the purpose, aims, ideals and habits of the Ad Club, President W. R. Farrington introduced the Massachusetts ex-governor as the speaker of the day.

MORNING ON 'CHANGE

A slackening of trading, accompanied by fractional drops in price, marked today's session of 'Change, where sales were only 520 shares, and between board deals reported only 2179 shares, a total of 2699 for the last 24 hours. Olan has dropped one quarter, McBryde is down, Oahu Sugar has lost a fraction, and other issues show weak spots. The recession is considered only temporary, and due to uneasiness over the fact that Congress continues to delay definite action on the repeal of the free sugar clause of the tariff act.

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence]

SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, March 8.

Yesterday morning a review of the troops at Schofield Barracks was held in honor of David I. Walsh, former governor of Massachusetts. When Mr. Walsh accompanied by Governor Pinkham arrived at Leilehua by automobile a salute of 17 guns was fired by one of the batteries of the 1st Field Artillery. Following the review a reception was held at the 25th Infantry Club in honor of Governor Pinkham and Mr. Walsh, at which all the officers of the post were present. They were later entertained at luncheon by Brigadier-General and Mrs. Frederick S. Strong.

One of the most successful dances ever held at Schofield Barracks was given last evening by the Mounted Service Mess, as an opening of the new dancing pavilion that has just been completed adjacent to the club building. The new open-air pavilion is very similar to the one adjoining the 1st Infantry Club at Castner, and is credited with having the finest dance floor at Schofield. The 1st Field Artillery Band played the music for the dance, which was attended by a very large number from Schofield as well as by many from Honolulu and Fort Shafter. The arrangements for the dance, which were perfect in every detail, were made by Col. S. D. Storck, president of the Mounted Service Mess, and by the executive council, consisting of Lieut.-Col. J. F. McMahon, Capt. W. S. Browning, and Lieut. L. A. Beard.

The field officers of the 1st Field Artillery and Medical Corps stationed at Schofield Barracks left this morning for Haleiwa, where they will be in camp during the next three days while taking the annual test ride for field officers, consisting of 20 miles for three consecutive days. The officers will ride on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, when they will return to the post. The band of the 1st Field Artillery will also be at Haleiwa during this period, and enjoy a little outing in camp on the beach.

25TH INFANTRY NOTES

An interesting and vital message from regimental headquarters has recently been promulgated to this command under Bulletin 4, Headquarters, 25th Infantry.

In substance, and in part, it reads as follows: "The attention of all concerned is invited to the following remarks of the judge-advocate general of the army:

"When a soldier is found drunk and unfit for duty, the proper action would seem to be to put him at once in confinement (instead of in arrest in quarters, as is customary), and keep him there until he is perfectly sober before ordering him to perform any duty. It does not seem proper to order a drunken man (or expect him) to perform duty and then hold him responsible and punish him if he fails or refuses to obey such order. Ordering him to perform duty while his mind is in such condition results only in causing him to multiply his offense."

"The regimental commander is convinced of the soundness of these remarks and is in full sympathy with the views expressed. If a soldier, while under the influence of liquor, is placed in arrest, the regimental commander will entertain no charge against him for a subsequent breach of arrest."

This order will undoubtedly bring about a great reduction in the number of serious military and criminal offenses which are so prevalent at the present time and which are directly traceable to the injudicious use of liquor on the part of the drunkard and the fruitless efforts of the sober to compel certain actions on the part of the drunken man, resulting in a more or less aggravated situation. The colonel is entitled to much credit for promulgating this order. It will do a deal of good."

Our crack sprinters, Gilbert and Mills, who have been facing disqualification, as professionals, from participating in the A. A. U. meet, have at last been allowed to compete under a special dispensation based on the precedent established by the local A. A. U. Association, permitting military men to compete regardless of their pro-amateur aspect.

More than two score men are returning to the mainland on the incoming transport per expiration term of active service or by reason of having spent three years on this island.

Changes in the band section: Sgt. Phillips to be principal musician and Cpl. White to be sergeant.

Sgt. White's 30 years' service for retirement will be attained on the 19th of this month.

(By David W. Adams.)

Captain Stephen Morris Kochersperger, U. S. A., inspector-instructor detailed by the United States Army to the Pennsylvania National Guard, died in the Jefferson Hospital of dysentery which he contracted in the Philippines in 1898.
